Local Rustlings.
More cold, more coal!
How some people live, some other people never know.
Some one shot and killed F. M. Estes' fine Greyhound, Wednesday.
The coal miners are the most promptly paying subscribers on the RUSTLER'S list.
The epidemic of grip is waning a little. All will be glad to bid adieu to the unwelcome guest.
Charley Way now keeps the Daily and Illustrated papers for sale at J. H. Gerdes' store.
There are more buildings to rent. What's the matter with having another printing office or two.
The RUSTLER now has much the best subscription list it has possessed since starting in Cerrillos.
Cerrillos has schools in English, Spanish and Hebrew languages. The Hebrew class has one devoted scholar.
When the spring time comes and the mines are all in bloom,—but really, is that part of an old song or not?
Cerrillos and San Pedro must elect delegates to attend the silver convention at El Paso, or justly be rated as lacking in interest.
Remember to look at those new lines of clothing and overcoats now in at J. H. Gerdes' clothing store, Cerrillos, before making your purchase.
The marshal is ordered by the town board to kill all dogs running at large in Cerrillos who do not wear the proper license tag, after Dec. 1st, 1891.

Atchison's big Concord coach, with four flyers, continues to make daily trips to San Pedro, with passengers and mail.

The Lincoln-Lucky force is now drifting toward the ore body from the bottom of the Middleton shaft, the engineering calculations having missed it slightly.

A notice in chancery—application for dissolution of matrimonial bonds existing between Minnie Spencer Benton and William Jesse Benton, appears in this paper.

A shortage in the supply of cars has slightly effected the coal shipments this week. The supply so far this season is better however, than of any other year previous.

John Crosby, Mining Engineer and Coalery Viewer, has a card in this paper. He is an old engineer, is located at the coal fields, is a competent judge of coal properties, and is always ready to make examinations and reports.

J. H. Shufelt, secretary of a meeting of Dolores citizens held to elect delegates to attend the silver convention at El Paso, informs us that the following gentlemen were selected: Daniel Taylor, W. A. Graves, M. L. English and Milton Fisk.

The end of the year is approaching. At such a time it is always well enough to study over the past and plan for the future. This is necessary to success. Study the past to try to remedy its mistakes, so they may be avoided in the future. If man did not live to learn, there would be little hope of progress.

Railroad building in south Santa Fe county next year, great mine development next year, smelter plants established next year, presidential, territorial and local elections next year. Two and two are four, 0 from 0 leaves nothing and figure's a figure. The solution of which is, you can almost hear the rumble and the tumble of coming exciting events.

J. P. McNulty, an old-time miner of south Santa Fe county, returned to Cerrillos this week from Salt Lake Utah, where he has been a year working in the mines near that city. He has a number of claims near Dolores, where he has now gone to do the assessment work for this year. He is very well pleased with the Salt Lake vicinity of Utah.

San Pedro Rustlings.
G. Z. & Co. have a grand line of Stetson hats.

Greble & Co., are running the Arcade Restaurant in full blast.

All the latest styles of Dress Goods and Flannels, at G. Z. & Co's.

The San Pedro hotel is coming to the front with a good business.

Claim-holders are busy doing assessment work for the closing year.

Don't fail to order you a new suit for the holidays, at Goodman, Ziegler & Co's.

R. W. Wooten came in from San Pedro on business last night, returning on this morning's stage.

Goodman, Ziegler & Co. have now a fine display of holiday goods. Give them a call and they will try to please you.

There is yet considerable typhoid-malarial fever in San Pedro. Our health committees should get to work and unearth the cause.

L. D. Sugar goes to San Pedro to-morrow with a load of merchandise. From there he will try a bear hunt in the Sandia mountains.

R. M. Carley came over from San Pedro Saturday of last week and while here took occasion to renew two subscriptions to the RUSTLER.

Mr. A. Perron, of the hardware firm of Perron & Bro., successors to Perron Fountain & Co., San Pedro, visited Cerrillos Monday and supplied the new firm with stationery printing at the RUSTLER office. An advertisement for the firm also appears in this issue.

Personal Rustlings.

W. H. Coleman is up and able to be at his shop again.

T. P. Gable was a visitor to Albuquerque, Monday.

Ask Randolph Kelley how he caught the girl in Missouri.

F. H. Mitchell was up from Wallace on business, Wednesday.

Mrs. Morgan Jones is quite seriously ill at the coal fields.

Agent C. E. Harney is on the sick list, confined today to his bed.

Cal. Green will go back to Arizona, to take an engine on the S. F. R. R.

Miss Jessie Sugar and Mr. R. Kelley attended church at Las Vegas Sunday.

Attorney Easley and Mr. W. C. Rogers went down to Boien, Monday on business.

W. W. Miller says he is the worst scandalized man in Cerrillos, and John Welch is responsible.

Mr. Armstrong, foreman at the Lucas mine, reported seriously ill with fever last week, is better.

Capt. Hudson, Santa Fe's well-known jeweler, and Mr. Hall, were down from the capital city Sunday.

Geo. Dean was slightly hurt in the back by a rock fall in Brown's bank, at the coal fields, Wednesday.

Mr. Myer Friedman was a visitor to Cerrillos last Saturday, returning to Las Vegas on Sunday morning's train.

Ross Uptegrove has been having a brisk tussle with the grip for a week, and is still confined to his bed, though slightly better.

Mrs. Z. M. Crutchfield has been quite ill the past week, but is improving. Z-d, our popular marshal, is also getting over his spell of the grip.

Ed. Meagher, who has been in Santa Fe undergoing a critical surgical operation, and who last week was not expected to recover, is reported better.

Col. R. W. Webb has put in a portion of the week here, looking after various Cerrillos interests. If there is the prospect of a boom, the Col. wants to be "in it."

Col. J. G. Albright, of the Morning Democrat, came up from Albuquerque yesterday to put a force of men at work on his gold property east of San Pedro.

Mr. F. Simonson we understand, is on his way to Cerrillos from Milwaukee, but has stopped off in Chicago to take preliminary steps in procuring machinery for the proposed Cerrillos smelting plant.

Mr. Richard Giblin departed for Albuquerque Wednesday, where he will remain for a short time in an effort to recuperate health. Uncle Dick is the victim of a little joke, though evidently not meant as such. The RUSTLER recently published a notice of the marriage in San Pedro of Richard Gibbons, and parties at a distance, within the range of the paper's wide circulation, not reading the name carefully, have been writing Mr. Giblin congratulatory letters, wishing him much happiness, etc. It may be hoped that the interest manifested by his friends may have a good effect.

Mr. E. Huhn, the former manager of the Cerrillos Mining Co's, property at the Cash Entry camp, left Tuesday night for San Diego county, California, his old home. Business will likely bring him back here in January, for a brief visit. Mr. Huhn has been here for four years, and although his life has been one of conservative attention to business, he leaves with the respect and a friendly feeling from all. The Cerrillos Mining Company, in which splendid property he is largely interested, is left in good hands with Capt. Williams as manager and T. C. Sanderson as assistant. Both gentlemen are experienced in mining and minerals and express their opinion that the property will certainly develop into a good, dividend-paying industry.

The largest line of Boots and Shoes in Cerrillos can be found at J. H. GERDES & Co's.

The Coal Business Serene.
Superintendent Risque, of the Cerrillos Coal & Iron Co., spent the first half of the week here making leases with the coal shippers, all of whom, we understand, with two exceptions, entered into a lease with the company. In connection with this it is hinted that an established price of three dollars per ton is likely to be made on bituminous coal, and influence brought to bear that will largely increase the market demand. If this shall be accomplished, the present arrangement may be hailed as the era of greater prosperity for Cerrillos and her coal business than has as yet been known. It is well known to coal operators that the cutting and slashing of prices in order that one man or one company might sell more coal than another, has been the principal cause of loss in all the history of Cerrillos coal mining. That the quality of these coals will cause their demand even at a much higher price than any other coals in the southwest, and at a higher price than they have ever been put upon the market, is proof positive that the remedy for the evil has always been in the hands of the operators, who in fact were themselves to blame that the evil existed. Our coal business, run on a correct system, would be a blessing to many whom it does not now profit a cent.

The Lincoln-Lucky "In It."
Word came over from San Pedro last night that R. Y. Anderson's force had broken through into ten to twelve feet of carbonate ore, from the Middleton shaft. This is great news, as it places the mine in position to produce heavily at once. With half a dozen cars of rich ore shipping from this—south Santa Fe county's bonanza mine—every day, many will be the additional dollars coming in.

Mill Burned.
Mr. John Marsh, whom Ames & Gould succeeded here in the feed and produce business, met with a serious loss last Sunday night, his fine flouring mill at Turon, Kansas, burning with all its contents, and no insurance. In a business letter to Messrs. Ames & Gould he states: "We had your car of chup sacked in the mill and ready to load Monday morning. Also had a car of corn partly loaded at the mill and all went. On account of having a foreclosure suit in court to save the property we were compelled to take back, no insurance could be had until the matter was settled." Mr. Marsh has the sympathy of all his acquaintances here, coupled with the wish that the misfortune may be overcome and the mill rebuilt to retrieve the present loss by future prosperity.

It Gets There.
The merits of Cerrillos coal are steadily building up for it a market against every opposition. None but "the best coal in the world" could have accomplished this, in the face of the many and great obstacles thrown in the way of its production.

The White Ash Coal Company have leased for one month. Mr. De Masters, operating the Bailey mine, has also leased.

Overcoats can be had at your own figures at G. Z. & Co's.

Ladies dress goods for the holiday trade—latest styles and guaranteed quality, at the Dry Goods and Clothing store of J. J. Gerdes, Cerrillos.

Ladies' trimmed hats at Goodman, Ziegler & Co's.

Ralph Ray, the brute who murdered his mother at Durango, Colorado, has plead guilty and been sentenced to hard labor in the penitentiary for life.

Stormy Wednesday.

Wednesday was a blustery, stormy day. The wind would blow great gusts, then a little rain would fall and in a few minutes the snow would come down in real winter style, immediately to disappear as the squall passed. On the following day El Sol came out bright and beautiful as only the sun can shine in New Mexico, the land of the tortilla, the frijole and the chili.

Assigned.

M. Tannenbaum, who has been in business here for a year, in groceries and dry goods, made an assignment Monday for the benefit of creditors. Mr. Tannenbaum was considered a careful business man, but we understand, had no capital invested of his own, he having lost all by fire at San Pedro. He was supplied with goods by Myer Friedman & Bro., of Las Vegas, with which to open up business in Cerrillos, and has apparently had a very good trade and made, few if any bad accounts. The assignment was caused we understand, by Friedman & Bro., demanding immediate payment of bills due, which Mr. Tannenbaum was not prepared to make, hence he assigned, choosing S. Berger, of Las Vegas, as the assignee. The stock is being inventoried, and at present it is likely will be closed out or left temporarily in charge of Joe Gievers, who has been with Mr. Tannenbaum.

Shoulders to the Wheel.

When Kansas City was a village, and it was less than a score of years ago, people looked at its unsightly surroundings and laughed at the idea that a city could be built there. Yet not only has such a thing been accomplished, but a city has been built that must always class among the leading cities of the United States. It was not built however by a class of croakers. It was built, foundation upon foundation and wall upon wall, by the men who are imbued with the idea that life is short and advancement necessary; the class of men who in a few years time made the wild state of Kansas almost as populous as New York; the class of men who plan by day and think by night, how to promote the enterprise of their locality, and who, when they have conceived an idea all unite in carrying it out. The chief resource of any town may almost be said to be enterprise and brains, for what good is a mountain of gold, buried out of sight?

Stealing Sheep.

The Albuquerque Citizen says Frank Blake, a son of F. A. Blake, stole 500 sheep from Manfor Romero, of Valencia county, in broad daylight and drove them away. He was followed by the herders but stood them off with a Winchester. They then reported matters to the authorities and officers were sent to look for young Blake and the sheep. This is the second sheep-stealing escapade of Blake, who is only about 20 years of age. The first occurred some five months ago, when he corralled several hundred sheep belonging to Andreas Romero, of Albuquerque. He was arrested for that offense by officers of Valencia county, incarcerated in jail at Los Lunas and bound over in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance. He gave the bond and was thus at liberty to make a second attempt. He is evidently making a vigorous attempt to stock a sheep ranch.

A GREAT OFFER.

This office will supply a copy of Gen. Grant's Memoirs, subscription price of which has been $7.00, and a subscription to the RUSTLER and Cosmopolitan Magazine each one year, for $7.00. The subscription price of the Magazine is $3.00, that of the RUSTLER $3.00, postage on the memoirs—96 ounces—48 cts. For the same price those who desire can have their choice of either Gen. Robert E. Lee's Memoirs, or the Memoirs of Gen. Sherman, Gen. Sheridan or General McClelland. In each case the Memoirs are virtually a gift.

Our stock of Boots, Shoes and Rubber Goods is now complete.

G. Z. & Co.

Get off the Dump.

Both Santa Fe and Albuquerque are now clamoring for smelters. Neither location is one half so good a point as Cerrillos, but both are especially well located for wool-cleaning and the manufacturing of woolen goods, and both could command an abundance of raw material. There is no point so well fitted for ore reducing as Cerrillos. None with fuel so cheap or the fluxing materials so close. There is no point less fitted to manufacture New Mexico's wool, its next greatest, if not greatest product. If the people of Albuquerque, Las Vegas and Santa Fe hadn't more wool on their brains than adorn the native sheep, they would years ago have been supplying the west and Mexico with fabrics made in their own cities, by the labor of their own dependent people and from the tons of New Mexico produced wool which they hurriedly ship east to be manufactured and returned to the trade they should supply, instead of looking sight of their most promising industry and clamoring for a smelter. A good factory in either city of that character would pay and pay big. Freights would be saved both ways, and labor could be had here as cheaply as in the East, for there is no question but what the Mexican boys and girls would make excellent workers in such a capacity, acquiring a skill almost theirs by nature, rapidly. The field is unlimited and the profits will be boundless, so brush down the cob-webs and get a curve on yourselves. Cerrillos wants the smelters, and proposes to have them.

OBITUARY.

JONES.—Elijah Jones was born in 1811. Died Nov. 13th, 1891, aged 80 years.

Bro. Jones died with his children in Cerrillos, N. M., whom he had recently come to visit from Texas.

He espoused the cause of Christ in his youth and ever after lived a faithful and consistent christian life. He has crossed the Jordan to meet the companion and loved ones who have preceded him. He leaves several children and a host of friends to mourn their loss, which is his gain. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." May his departure be a tie binding us more closely to the better world. During his last illness he bid adieu to an aged friend and said: "We shall meet on the eternal shore."

PEARCY.—Gracie Adele Percy, daughter of Robert and Maggie Percy, was born in 1888. Died Nov. 28th, 1891, aged 5 years, ten months and one day—of typhoid fever at San Pedro, N. M., after an illness of 18 days.

She was a bright and dutiful child—a jewel gone to adorn the crown of Jesus.

"Dearest Sister thou hast left us, Here thy loss we deeply feel; But 'tis God who hath bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal."

The parents wish to express their heart-felt gratitude for the kindness and favors shown them by the friends in San Pedro and Cerrillos.

W. B. JENNINGS.

Card of Thanks.

We take occasion to express our heart-felt gratitude for the Thanksgiving dinner and supper given for us by the christian ladies of Cerrillos. We would be ungrateful indeed, were we insensible to their untiring zeal and successful efforts for our welfare and the cause they have espoused. A more faithful and devoted band could hardly be found. May God's richest blessings rest upon them.

MR. AND MRS. W. B. JENNINGS.

"Rose of Kansas" and "Imperial," favorite brands of flour—from the celebrated Walnut Creek Mills—just received in carload lots, by Ames & Gould, who now have the largest and best stock of flour ever brought to Cerrillos.
